Mission

The mission of Southern Oregon Friends of Hospice is to sustain Celia's House in Holmes Park, to ensure dying individuals and their families are exceptionally cared for, and to promote broader knowledge on the benefits of end-of-life palliative care throughout our community.

Vision

Our vision is to create a community which understands and transforms the dying process into a time of opportunity for meaningful closure—with support offered to each dying person, their family, and to the dedicated caregivers who serve them.

Values

- Providing comfort (physical, emotional, and spiritual care)
- Nurturing and teaching a culture of compassion
- Respecting the uniqueness, dignity, and preferences of each individual
- Seeking to be as inclusive as our resources and sustainability allow
- Listening for, and honoring each person's experience
- Supporting the healing of grief and personal relationships

Welcome

Sustainable nonprofit organizations don't thrive by chance. They are built on a foundation of purpose, passionate people, and a compelling vision.

As you read our 2026 Impact Report, we hope you'll be inspired by the extraordinary commitment of our board, staff, volunteers, and wide caring community.

Their dedication to our mission, values, and financial stewardship has created an organization that attracts people willing to roll up their sleeves and do whatever it takes to ensure deeply compassionate end-of-life care is available to all who need it.

Southern Oregon Friends of Hospice created a home where each resident is cared for with kindness and dignity.

A Strong Foundation for a Lasting Future

Founded in 2008 as a nonprofit organization, Southern Oregon Friends of Hospice envisioned compassionate end-of-life care for those unable to remain at home. In 2018, that dream became Celia's House, a 12-bedroom home for hospice care, serving our entire region.

Since opening, Celia's House has welcomed nearly 850 residents with dignity, comfort, and kindness. More than 60% receive financial assistance, ensuring cost never stands in the way of care.

Our dedicated staff and devoted volunteers sustain Celia's House and The HUB (Hospice Unique Boutique), contributing countless hours to our mission.

This year, we expanded community and medical-provider awareness of end-of-life, palliative, and hospice care, helping individuals and families navigate life's most difficult decisions.

Guided by a diverse Board of Directors, our strong financial foundation and operational stability position us to serve the region for years to come.

As we celebrate 18 years of service, we are deeply grateful to every resident and family who entrusted us with their care, our dedicated staff and volunteers, and our Board for its steadfast leadership. Together, you make this mission possible.

Lori Williams, Board Chair

Dwight Wilson, Executive Director

"Because of the high staff-to-resident ratio, I feel like I can do my job well and provide all the activities of daily living, fulfilling each resident's needs. Hearing that residents and their families feel truly cared for makes all the hard work worth it." –Nikola, CNA, Celia's House

Celia's House: Reaching Deep into the Community

For every resident we care for, at least 10 of their loved ones and friends are touched by our programs, support, education, nurturing food, and the comfort of volunteer companions.

"When I visited my sister after she arrived at Celia's House, I was blown away. I'd never met such caring people and seen a place with so many volunteers! It is such a holistic environment, with amazing food that is offered to both residents and visitors. The gardens are immaculate and beautiful… Celia's House is like going to heaven before you die."
–Sherry Agnos, Family Member

"End-of-life looks different for every person, and our team understands and respects that. We care for residents of all ages; most commonly elderly, but also younger residents who have children. I have two kids of my own, and children have a special place in my heart. Taking care of people during such a vulnerable time gives me purpose. It's rewarding to know I can make a difference in someone's life."
–Maria Regalado, Caregiver, Celia's House

"Celia's House volunteers are a very special group of people. Each volunteer arrives with a range of skills and interests, and they share a common passion for the tender beauty of hospice work. The common thread is kindness. Thanks to their dedication, our residents receive exceptional care."

–Becky Brown, Volunteer Coordinator, Celia's House

Volunteers: Offering Their Time, Talents, and Hearts

The volunteers at Celia's House and The HUB are part of the strong foundation that keeps our work centered in community. Rooted in compassion and a shared commitment to caring for others, their generosity strengthens everything we do and reminds us that when a community comes together, lasting impact is possible.

"Celia's House is truly a sanctuary—not just for residents and families, but for volunteers as well. These walls are filled with beauty and peace. To accompany people in life's final chapter is a profound honor."

"As a nurse, I have seen first-hand the value of compassionate care to Celia's House residents and their families. The HUB fully supports the mission and our community, and I feel honored to volunteer."

–Annemarie, Volunteer, The HUB

"Every year I'm reminded that the heart of The HUB is our people. Our volunteers bring so much heart, generosity, creativity, and care to everything they do. I'm incredibly grateful for all they give, and for the meaningful difference they make in our community."

–Chalayne, Manager, The HUB

Celia's House Programs

The Care Fund

The Care Fund provides access to end-of-life care at Celia's House. Residential care, caregiving, palliative, and hospice care are expensive and not affordable for all people. The Care Fund is for individuals who are not eligible for Medicaid and cannot afford our full private rate. Southern Oregon Friends of Hospice is committed to ensuring these resources remain continuously available to our community.

$745,485
has been raised for the Care Fund since 2019

$299,152
currently sits in the Care Fund

$494,877
has been spent from the Care Fund, helping 50 families since 2019

Spiritual Care

"Spiritual care extends beyond the bedside to help residents, families, staff, and volunteers recognize that death and dying are not simply medical events, but profound sacred passages. It is a key part of our culture, giving residents and families time to reflect on legacy, hope, faith, and life. Our team tailors support to each individual's wishes. With deeper relationships and trust, more than half of the families whose loved ones died this year have chosen to participate in a meaningful ceremony of farewell and remembrance—a pause to honor the person and approach the journey of grief with intention, connection, and love."

–Khaliqa Baqi, Chaplain, Celia's House

Acton Black Family Food Program

The Acton Black Family Food Program was started by the Black family in memory of their beloved father, who was a resident at Celia's House. Their family was so grateful to be offered meals when they visited their father during his last days and wanted to ensure this continued for every family at Celia's House. Celia's House provides an average of 250 additional meals to visiting family and friends every year.

Living Up to Our Mission

A key component of the Southern Oregon Friends of Hospice mission is education and outreach throughout our community. It is important to be as prepared as possible when life's unexpected twists and turns occur, and to know of valuable resources in your community.

Monthly Death Cafés

A Death Café is a group-led discussion of death and dying with no agenda, objectives, or themes. It is a safe and friendly space to talk openly about what is often a taboo subject.

Celia's House is proud to hold ongoing monthly Death Cafés on the third Wednesday of the month. Another local nonprofit organization, Southern Oregon Living and Dying Alliance (SOLADA), facilitates these meetings.

"Death Cafés are offered as community gatherings, and welcome exploring the most human of all experiences: death and all that surrounds it. These conversations can lead to important perspectives and openness, leading people to make the most of their lives. Curiosity, silence, wonder, quiet confidential sharing and listening, intimacy, expansiveness, tears, and laughter are all welcome."

–Laurel Miller, SOLADA

Osher Lifelong Learning (OLLI) Classes

Dwight Wilson, RN, MA, Executive Director and Administrator of Celia's House, teaches end-of-life education and planning classes twice a year at Celia's House through OLLI. Dwight has extensive experience managing and directing palliative and hospice care organizations and programs.

For more information, contact us at info@sofriendsofhospice.org or visit the local OLLI website at www.sou.edu/olli.

Senior and Resource Fairs

Southern Oregon Friends of Hospice participates in a variety of senior and community resource fairs throughout the year to provide education on end-of-life resources and connect with community members and local organizations providing valuable services.

The HUB: A Strong Foundation of Support and Community

The HUB, Hospice Unique Boutique, has built a sustainable model around the remarkable generosity of our community. Every donation, purchase, volunteer hour, and dollar spent at The HUB helps provide compassionate end-of-life care for residents and their families. Since opening in 2009, The HUB has generated more than $5,000,000 in sales to support Southern Oregon Friends of Hospice.

"The HUB is my happy place!"
– Customer, The HUB

Donations

Donated items find a new life while generating a reliable source of funding.

"You can tell by the quality of the donations that your community really appreciates what you do."
– Customer, The HUB

Volunteers

Volunteers make it all possible, from sorting and preparing donations to merchandising, sales, and delivery. Volunteers are the heart of The HUB.

Events

The HUB's signature events and seasonal sales offer numerous opportunities to gather, celebrate, and have fun, all while strengthening community connections and raising funds to support care at Celia's House.

"You never know what treasures you'll find at this store. It has a well-curated and nicely displayed selection of nicer clothing (some vintage, some newer) and housewares. The creative, seasonal merchandising makes shopping a visual treat."
– Customer, The HUB

The HUB Furniture: Room to Grow

This year, The HUB expanded its warehouse space, creating new opportunities to showcase the generous donations we receive. With the help of our dedicated team and volunteers, the space has become a shoppable showroom featuring furniture, artwork and unique finds. This expansion strengthens our capacity for the future, allowing us to make the most of every donation with generating greater support for Southern Oregon Friends of Hospice and Celia's House.
